the son of General Beauharoais, whose loss mourned by his country.

July 4th. I am receiving so many letters f of the Republic that I cannot answer them all of his fellow citizens is the only worthy rewai vices rendered by a soldier to his country.

14th, Milan:

Soldiers! I know that you feel deeply the that threaten our country; but it will not danger. Mountains lie between us and would surmount them as rapidly as the ea| tain the Constitution, to defend liberty, tc government and all republicans.

Soldiers, dismiss all uneasiness, and let us new standards: Eternal war on the enemies o lie and of the Constitution!

17th. The Emperor is trying to gain time, motive ? It is difficult to imagine, unless i direction of the Clichy Club, and the return ists. What is the use of our constant vie blood we have shed for the country is mac internal factions.

23d. Without question the Court of \ everything from time, and expects to mi diversion in favour of England.